Intellicom Promotes Several Employees

Intellicom is pleased to announce several promotions. Kevin Glasser has been promoted from Technician to Senior Technician. Jarred Staab has been promoted from Engineer to Senior Engineer. Brian Hemmer and Jim Shoemaker have each been promoted to the role of Solutions Architect. Please offer each of these employees a warm congratulations if you see them out and about!

Meet the Staff: Kevin Ray - Engineer

Kevin Ray is an Engineer for Intellicom. In this position, he is responsible for designing, implementing, and maintaining leading-edge communication systems for our customers. Kevin has over 25 years of telecommunications and structured cabling experience. Kevin spent 4 years as Telecom Manager for Pinpoint Communications and prior to that was the owner of Central Nebraska Telephone & Equipment, Inc., headquartered in Holdrege, Nebraska. Kevin holds multiple certifications from Comdial (Vertical) and is certified in structured cabling through ICC and Leviton.

First concert you attended: Styx.

Best thing about working in technology: The challenge, the variety, and the people.
